SECTION 5.K.(1) Separately Managed Accounts

If the remaining amount is at least $10 billion in regulatory assets under management, complete Question (a). Any regulatory assets under management reported in Item 5.D.(3)(d), (e), and (f) should not be reported below.

Do not report those investments based on related or underlying portfolio assets. Cash equivalents include bank deposits, certificates of deposit, bankers' acceptances and similar bank instruments.

Some assets could be classified into more than one category or require discretion about which category applies. You may use your own internal methodologies and the conventions of your service providers in determining how to categorize assets, so long as the methodologies or conventions are consistently applied and consistent with information you report internally and to current and prospective clients. However, you should not double count assets, and your responses must be consistent with any instructions or other guidance relating to this Section.

If "yes," then for each private fund that you advise, you must complete a Section 7.B.(1) of Schedule D, except in certain circumstances described in the next sentence and in Instruction 6 of the Instructions to Part 1A. In either case, if you seek to preserve the anonymity of a private fund client by maintaining its identity in your books and records in numerical or alphabetical code, or similar designation, pursuant to rule 204-2(d), you may identify the private fund in Section 7.B.(1) or 7.B.(2) of Schedule D using the same code or designation in place of the fund's name.

The Board is comprised of equity owners, the chief executive officer, other senior employees and external directors. No holder of BAH LLC units is able to exercise unilateral control of the Bridgewater entities. Re: Item 5 and Item 9. The primary investment funds and separate accounts that we manage generally invest a significant portion of their assets directly or indirectly in other pooled vehicles (referred to as "implementation funds") which we also manage and through which we pursue our investment strategies for our primary funds and separate accounts (e.g. cash management investments are aggregated in a liquidity fund). These implementation funds do not charge management or incentive fees, do not have investors other than the funds and accounts that we manage, and are used solely for the purpose of obtaining efficient execution of our transactional activities and for reducing administrative burdens related to our primary funds and separate accounts. The assets of these implementation funds that were contributed by the primary funds and separate accounts have not been included in our RAUM or in our amount of custodied assets since we believe that, like a master feeder arrangement, this would result in the double counting of assets that we manage and custody. Schedule D - 5K(2): We have calculated exposures and borrowings in a manner consistent with our approach to reporting such data for private funds on Form PF. Schedule A and B: If there is no middle name listed for an individual, then the individual does not have a middle name.
