SECTION 5.K.(1) Separately Managed Accounts

After subtracting the amounts reported in Item 5.D.(3)(d)-(f) from your total regulatory assets under management, indicate the approximate percentage of this remaining amount attributable to each of the following categories of assets. If the remaining amount is at least $10 billion in regulatory assets under management, complete Question (a). If the remaining amount is less than $10 billion in regulatory assets under management, complete Question (b).

Any regulatory assets under management reported in Item 5.D.(3)(d), (e), and (f) should not be reported below.

If you are a subadviser to a separately managed account, you should only provide information with respect to the portion of the account that you subadvise.

End of year refers to the date used to calculate your regulatory assets under management for purposes of your annual updating amendment . Mid-year is the date six months before the end of year date. Each column should add up to 100% and numbers should be rounded to the nearest percent.

Investments in derivatives, registered investment companies, business development companies, and pooled investment vehicles should be reported in those categories. Do not report those investments based on related or underlying portfolio assets. Cash equivalents include bank deposits, certificates of deposit, bankers' acceptances and similar bank instruments.

Some assets could be classified into more than one category or require discretion about which category applies. You may use your own internal methodologies and the conventions of your service providers in determining how to categorize assets, so long as the methodologies or conventions are consistently applied and consistent with information you report internally and to current and prospective clients. However, you should not double count assets, and your responses must be consistent with any instructions or other guidance relating to this Section.

Item 11 Disclosure Information

In this Item, we ask for information about your disciplinary history and the disciplinary history of all your advisory affiliates. We use this information to determine whether to grant your application for registration, to decide whether to revoke your registration or to place limitations on your activities as an investment adviser, and to identify potential problem areas to focus on during our on-site examinations. One event may result in "yes" answers to more than one of the questions below. In accordance with General Instruction 5 to Form ADV, "you" and "your" include the filing adviser and all relying advisers under an umbrella registration.

Your advisory affiliates are: (1) all of your current employees (other than employees performing only clerical, administrative, support or similar functions); (2) all of your officers, partners, or directors (or any person performing similar functions); and (3) all persons directly or indirectly controlling you or controlled by you. If you are a "separately identifiable department or division" (SID) of a bank, see the Glossary of Terms to determine who your advisory affiliates are.

If you are registered or registering with the SEC or if you are an exempt reporting adviser, you may limit your disclosure of any event listed in Item 11 to ten years following the date of the event. If you are registered or registering with a state, you must respond to the questions as posed; you may, therefore, limit your disclosure to ten years following the date of an event only in responding to Items 11.A.(1), 11.A.(2), 11.B.(1), 11.B.(2), 11.D.(4), and 11.H.(1)(a). For purposes of calculating this ten-year period, the date of an event is the date the final order, judgment, or decree was entered, or the date any rights of appeal from preliminary orders, judgments, or decrees lapsed.

You must complete the appropriate Disclosure Reporting Page ("DRP") for "yes" answers to the questions in this Item 11.

| The SEC is required by the Regulatory Flexibility Act to consider the effect of its regulations on small entities. In order to do this, we need to determine whether you meet the definition of "small business" or "small organization" under rule 0-7.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                            |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                     |                       |                       |

Schedule D - Miscellaneous

You may use the space below to explain a response to an Item or to provide any other information.

Certain MIM AUM is represented by the MetLife affiliated insurance companies, which include real estate investments in addition to other securities. To clarify the response to Items 5A and 5B(1): The majority of these individuals are employees of MetLife Group, Inc. and provide services to, and may serve as officers of, the Registrant through a contractual employee services arrangement. The Registrant has included these individuals in response to Item 5 based on the broad definition of "employee". The Registrant has not included as “employees” those individuals principally employed by the Registrant’s advisory affiliates who perform certain services pursuant to so-called “participating affiliate arrangements,” although such individuals are deemed associated persons of the Registrant. As a subsidiary of a highly regulated public company, the Registrant is mindful of the privacy regulations and other regulatory concerns impacting our clients. Accordingly, the Registrant does not ask for client identifying information, such as custodial and/or bank account information, that is irrelevant to the services the Registrant performs for its clients. The Registrant has responded to 5.K(3) only with respect to clients where it has custodian information. For Item 7.B.(1), Schedule D, the Registrant reported certain private funds on a combined master/feeder basis. For questions 19 and 21, the answer relates to the master fund only, not the feeder fund(s). Additionally, certain private funds have been reported with unaudited gross asset values. The Registrant became the investment manager of the Floating Rate Fund I, LP as a result of an acquisition of a team of portfolio managers from an unaffiliated investment adviser on February 28, 2025. As such, the RAUM for this fund has been omitted from Item 5.D, 5.F, and Item 9.B. The Registrant and MIM I LLC are together filing a single Form ADV in reliance on the position expressed in the January 18, 2012 no-action letter issued to the American Bar Association.
