SECTION 5.K.(1) Separately Managed Accounts

After subtracting the amounts reported in Item 5.D.(3)(d)-(f) from your total regulatory assets under management, indicate the approximate percentage of this remaining amount attributable to each of the following categories of assets. If the remaining amount is at least $10 billion in regulatory assets under management, complete Question (a). If the remaining amount is less than $10 billion in regulatory assets under management, complete Question (b).

Any regulatory assets under management reported in Item 5.D.(3)(d), (e), and (f) should not be reported below.

If you are a subadviser to a separately managed account, you should only provide information with respect to the portion of the account that you subadvise.

End of year refers to the date used to calculate your regulatory assets under management for purposes of your annual updating amendment . Mid-year is the date six months before the end of year date. Each column should add up to 100% and numbers should be rounded to the nearest percent.

Investments in derivatives, registered investment companies, business development companies, and pooled investment vehicles should be reported in those categories. Do not report those investments based on related or underlying portfolio assets. Cash equivalents include bank deposits, certificates of deposit, bankers' acceptances and similar bank instruments.

Some assets could be classified into more than one category or require discretion about which category applies. You may use your own internal methodologies and the conventions of your service providers in determining how to categorize assets, so long as the methodologies or conventions are consistently applied and consistent with information you report internally and to current and prospective clients. However, you should not double count assets, and your responses must be consistent with any instructions or other guidance relating to this Section.

B. Are you an adviser to any private fund?

If "yes," then for each private fund that you advise, you must complete a Section 7.B.(1) of Schedule D, except in certain circumstances described in the next sentence and in Instruction 6 of the Instructions to Part 1A. In either case, if you seek to preserve the anonymity of a private fund client by maintaining its identity in your books and records in numerical or alphabetical code, or similar designation, pursuant to rule 204-2(d), you may identify the private fund in Section 7.B.(1) or 7.B.(2) of Schedule D using the same code or designation in place of the fund's name.

Schedule D - Miscellaneous

You may use the space below to explain a response to an Item or to provide any other information.

(1) Davis Investment Ventures, LLC (i.e. the registrant) has two "related person" entities which are not disclosed herein. First, Davis Management Company, LLC (hereinafter, "DMC"), is the entity responsible for property management operations on behalf of The Davis Companies (which is the d/b/a name referring to the registrant and DMC collectively). The registrant and DMC are under common control, but neither is controlled by the other. Both the registrant and DMC share supervised persons but any investment advisory functions performed by such supervised persons are in connection with their employment with the registrant only. DMC does not provide any investment advisory services, and because it is neither a real estate broker nor dealer it is not of a type for which identification on Section 7.A of this Schedule D would be required. Second, TDC Development Group, LLC (hereinafter, "TDG"), is the entity responsible for development and construction services on behalf of The Davis Companies (which is the d/b/a name referring to the registrant). The registrant and TDG are under common control, but neither is controlled by the other. Both the registrant and TDG share supervised persons but any investment advisory functions performed by such supervised persons are in connection with their employment with the registrant only. TDG does not provide any investment advisory services, and because it is neither a real estate broker nor dealer it is not of a type for which identification on Section 7.A of this Schedule D would be required.
