After subtracting the amounts reported in Item 5.D.(3)(d)-(f) from your total regulatory assets under management, indicate the approximate percentage of this remaining amount attributable to each of the following categories of assets. If the remaining amount is at least $10 billion in regulatory assets under management, complete Question (a). If the remaining amount is less than $10 billion in regulatory assets under management, complete Question (b).

Any regulatory assets under management reported in Item 5.D.(3)(d), (e), and (f) should not be reported below.

If you are a subadviser to a separately managed account, you should only provide information with respect to the portion of the account that you subadvise.

End of year refers to the date used to calculate your regulatory assets under management for purposes of your annual updating amendment . Mid-year is the date six months before the end of year date. Each column should add up to 100% and numbers should be rounded to the nearest percent.

Investments in derivatives, registered investment companies, business development companies, and pooled investment vehicles should be reported in those categories. Do not report those investments based on related or underlying portfolio assets. Cash equivalents include bank deposits, certificates of deposit, bankers' acceptances and similar bank instruments.

Some assets could be classified into more than one category or require discretion about which category applies. You may use your own internal methodologies and the conventions of your service providers in determining how to categorize assets, so long as the methodologies or conventions are consistently applied and consistent with information you report internally and to current and prospective clients. However, you should not double count assets, and your responses must be consistent with any instructions or other guidance relating to this Section.

An independent public accounting firm audits the private funds annually and the audited financial statements are distributed to the investors. The other 63 clients are being reported due to Standing Letters of Authorization ("SLOAs"). CCM is reporting limited custody for these clients due to SLOAs, however, CCM will comply with the SEC's February 21, 2017 No-Action letter that provides relief from the surprise exam if the adviser is in compliance with the seven representations in the letter. Item 8.I. has been answered 'Yes' due to a revenue sharing arrangement between our affiliate, CCM Insurance, LLC and LFA, LLC, a non-affiliated insurance company. Under this agreement, LFA will assist CCM Insurance with insurance company/product selection, underwriting and ongoing review. As a result of the marketing agreement, revenues will be shared between the two entities.
